

Production Manufacturer (St. Thomas)

Only Canadian-based applicants will be considered

ABOUT ALLIANCE DOOR PRODUCTS

With several locations across Canada and the US, we are a leading manufacturer and distributor of residential and commercial doors. We strive to be honorable in all we do, help others, pursue excellence, and grow profitably. Every day, we ensure that we are providing the building materials market with door and millwork products of the highest quality. We are responsive, efficient, and prompt in our services and always make sure that our customers have the greatest potential for profit. We value respect for all people, integrity in every situation, and great attention to the quality of our products.

See what our employees say about working at Alliance Door Products Canada.

<https://www.indeed.com/cmp/Alliance-Door-Products/about>

Position: Manufacturer

Duties: Your role you will require the use basic hand-tools (saws, drills, nail guns) and operate a Norfield machine to manufacture and assemble exterior door units.

Shift: Monday to Friday, 7:30am to 4:00pm

Compensation: Hourly – dependent on experience

Additional benefits and perks:

- Extended medical, dental, and vision plan
- Life insurance
- Disability benefits
- Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP)
- Safety Footwear Reimbursement Policy ($150 every 2 years)
- An employee referral bonus program (valued at up to $775 per referral)
- Career growth potential
- Staff events

QUALIFICATIONS:

- High school diploma or GED equivalent
- Experience with a Norfield machine preferred
- Door shop/industry experience an asset
- Carpentry/woodworking experience preferred
- Attention to detail and quality, and familiarity with basic hand and power tools
- A basic mathematical aptitude and understanding of imperial measurements to the 1/32 of an inch
- Familiarity with basic shop tools (saws, nail guns, pneumatic tools, and drills)
- Physical ability to frequently and safely lift up to 50 lbs. for entire shift